

Ocho Sur, a Model of Solidarity: Honored for Its Assistance in Nueva Requena

18/06/2025

The District Municipality of Nueva Requena has presented Ocho Sur with an award for its valuable collaboration during the severe floods that struck the region between January and March of this year. The distinction, delivered by Mayor Liz Jajaira Vásquez, highlights the company's solidarity and commitment to the families and communities hit hardest by the emergency.

Thanks to Ocho Sur's support, timely aid reached the villages and settlements affected by the river overflows. The district authority emphasized the importance of such partnerships between the private sector and local governments, noting that they are crucial for responding to emergencies and bolstering community protection.
